MacPhail's Suzuki Institute, sanctioned by the Suzuki Association of the Americas, is an opportunity for Suzuki students of all ages, with their parent, to come together to share in motivating, enriching and wide ranging musical experiences. Students will work with master teachers and improve their skills both technically and musically. Daily classes & observation may include:

- Instrument specific applied study
- Theory/reading skills
- Ensemble skills
- Chamber music
- Performance practices
- Composition/improvisation
- Masterclasses, recitals
- Art and music
- World music/drumming
- Music History
- Closing recitals and presentations

Who May Attend the Institute?

- Suzuki students who have completed the Twinkle Variations AND PARENTS or another responsible, interested adult must attend with students under high school age
- Teacher trainees
- Teacher observers

Attendees are responsible for arranging their own meals, housing and transportation while attending the institute.
