

Opera Workshop with Audrey Stottler

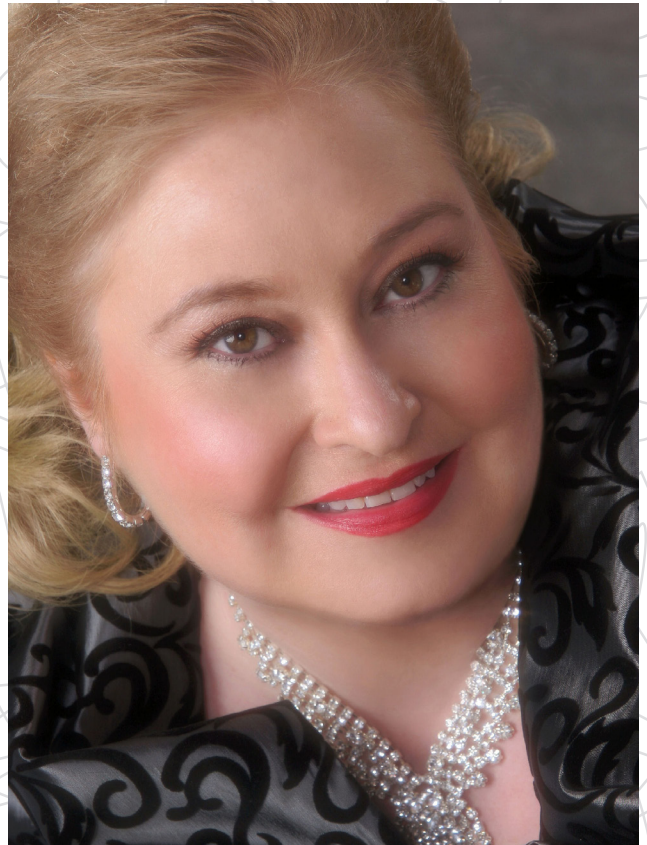

Why travel across the country when you can study with a world-renowned performer and teaching artist in Minneapolis? Audrey Stottler, of the New York Metropolitan Opera, will be presenting an Opera Workshop at MacPhail Center for Music for classical voice students. The workshop is open to all students studying classical music, lieder, opera arias and art songs. Students are asked to prepare one to three selections for study.

Details:

- Tuition: $725 ($17.26 per hour)
- Dates:
 - June 15, 17, 22, 24, 29
 - July 1, 6, 8, 13, 15, 20, 22, 27, 29
- Tuesdays: 6:00–9:00 p.m.
and Thursdays: 6:00–9:00 p.m.
- Audition: May 7 (Please prepare 1 selection for the audition: opera, aria, lieder or art song)
- Class meets twice per week
- Location:
MacPhail Center for Music
501 S. 2nd St.
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Faculty:

Audrey Stottler, voice
Janet Holdorf, collaborative piano
Thomas Bartsch, collaborative piano
Diane Landis, movement coach
Sharon Sweet, master class presenter

MacPhail