

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Mikalia Bradberry

Bradberry.mikalia@macphail.org

FREE FAMILY MUSIC SERIES: THE JOLLY POPS

MINNEAPOLIS – April 18th, 2022 - Featuring family fun songs about alligators, robots, dinosaurs, trains and so much more, MacPhail Center for Music is proud to present The Jolly Pops in the next iteration of the Free Family Music series at MacPhail's downtown location in the heart of Minneapolis. Featuring MacPhail's own Justin Hartke, Erik Schee and former MacPhail faculty Bill Hartong, it's bound to be a great time.

This Free Family Music Series will consist of two 30-minute performances, as well as a craft table and instrument exploration in between performances. Attendees will also receive snacks and refreshments to enjoy outside after the show.

MacPhail is thrilled to offer this event free to the public. Information for a livestream of the performance will be available to access on MacPhail's website and social media pages. While no tickets are required. Masks are always required apart from children under two years old. Please respect CDC social distancing guidelines as you move throughout MacPhail.

Due to covid safety guidelines activities are subject to change.

MacPhail Center for Music is committed to transforming lives and strengthening communities through music learning experiences that inspire. Each year, MacPhail offers programming to 16,000 students of all ages, backgrounds, and abilities, at locations in Minneapolis, White Bear Lake, Chanhassen, Apple Valley, and Austin, as well as 104 community partnerships across the Twin Cities. An industry leader in online music education, MacPhail's Live Online and Online School Partnerships programs have reached students for the past ten years. MacPhail has a 113-year history of excellence, promoting life-long learning and building long-term relationships between students and teachers. For more information, visit macphail.org.

